- ✓ List the functions of elders mentioned in Acts 20:17-36, learn that scripture location, and be able to state three functions. Remember that elders (also known as shepherds, bishops, or overseers) should "smell like the sheep" of their flock; in other words, be out among the members of the congregation to know what their needs are.
- ✓ List and learn the scripture reference for the qualifications for elders. List the qualifications for the position of elder, and be able to state at least three from memory.

(Note: The intention of this memory item is to help you think in depth about the leadership of the church and about the great responsibility that God has placed on elders. There is more than one Bible passage dealing with elders. Please bring your personal Bible with you so that we can discuss these passages together.)

- ✓ Make an appointment to interview one of Mayfair's deacons after you have learned some of the qualifications. Make a list of at least five meaningful questions to ask in your interview (avoid asking when he became a deacon and how long he has served; instead, ask about his responsibilities and his feelings concerning his service as a deacon.) Please feel free to ask your parents for help in making the list.
