

“Fallen But Not Forgotten”

A Tribute to Our Fallen War Heroes and Their Families

We got news the other day that an American hero had passed away.

Tears of love flow for our fallen heroes,
never to walk on our Homeland again.
So young and full of life and hope.
No peace after war will ever replace them.

Their heart was convicted to lay down their life for... their country, our freedom and a home where the eagles soar.

Taps played and a 21-gun salute was fired,
All the more reason our flag flies higher and higher.
The sound will echo long in our minds,
and the gratitude we owe forever realized.

Our fallen heroes were not taken in vain.
But for great conviction and cause they were slain!
America, remember to always praise their name.

To the families of our heroes, both yours and ours
roses and flags will adorn their final hour.
They laid down their burdens after the fight and paid the supreme cost long into the night.

*Fallen but not forgotten, we shall remember
From early January to late December.*
